

List of Questions from the "Determining an Approach to Researching Disability" tool

1. I am looking for a...

Mark only one oval.

- Framework
 Tool

2. Study purpose(s) (select all that apply)

Check all that apply.

- To identify prevalence of disability within a population
 To identify prevalence of functions impacted by disability within a population
 To understand experiences of disability
 To assess design, effectiveness and or implementation of disability inclusive initiatives or activities
 Not a disability focused study, but want to include "something" to identify people with disabilities
 Other

3. Main study purpose

Mark only one oval.

- To measure health and disability at individual and population levels
 To address barriers/limitations people with disability might encounter, allowing their full participation in the study
 Other

4. Funding/Labour intensity level

Mark only one oval.

- None/Low
 Mid
 High

5. Age of population of interest

Mark only one oval.

- Adults only
 Adults and children (all ages)

6. Mode of delivery

Check all that apply.

- Self-administered
 Requires administrator
 Either

7. Literacy level required by participants

Mark only one oval.

- Low - Participants do not need to be able to read and write
 Mid - Participants need to be able to read

8. I need to know about, and/or classify, specific impairments

Check all that apply.

- Yes
 No

9. The level of detail/extend of disability I wish to explore is

Mark only one oval.

- Low
 Mid
 High

10. My project is focused on gathering data from

Mark only one oval.

- Individual/Family
- Household/Community/All

11. Scale size of project

Mark only one oval.

- Small (i.e., Tens of participants)
 - Medium (i.e., Hundreds of participants)
 - Large (i.e.,Thousands of participants)
-